Counseling Informed Consent

Dear Parent:

As counselors at SCMS, it is our responsibility to provide a comprehensive, developmental, and preventative school counseling program to address academic and career planning. Your student may also visit the counseling office to discuss issues such as conflict resolution, problem-solving, peer relationships, social skills, family issues, and crisis situations. We have the best interest of your student at the forefront of all provided services.

Your student, _____, has expressed an interest in participating in one or more of the following services. Our counseling services are based on a trusting relationship between the counselor and student. If you or your student has a question or concern, we encourage you to contact us via the information below.

I give my permission for my student to participate in any of the following services provided by SCMS:

- Group Counseling
- Individual Counseling

Warmest Regards,

SCMS Counselors:

Brooke Neumann (A-D)
Stefnee McMullin (E-M)
Victoria Thompson (N-Z)
